

Manual of Policies and Procedures for Student Affairs

Subchapter 2.1 Campus Activities

Subchapter 2.1-100. General Provisions

Sec. 2.1-101. Purpose

- a. The Campus Activities program at The University of Texas at Tyler is designed to compliment the academic experience and to enhance the student experience through the development of a wide range of activities, programs, and services.
- b. These events encourage exposure to and participation in a variety of social, cultural, intellectual, spiritual, recreational, and governance opportunities.
- c. Activities, programs and services are developed based on the needs and desires of students and provide opportunities for the development of student interests, which empower students both academically and socially.
- d. The Campus Activities program encourages students to enhance their personal growth, acquire skills through their involvement in planning activities and programs, establish interpersonal relationships, build conflict resolution and problem solving skills and develop leadership qualities.
- e. We sponsor and assist in the creation of a variety of campus programs that are engaging, developmental and experiential for all participants and support and aid in the establishment of campus traditions and student retention through the implementation of annual campus and community events.
